

COVID-19 IN RURAL SOUTH CAROLINA

19.8%

of all COVID-19 cases

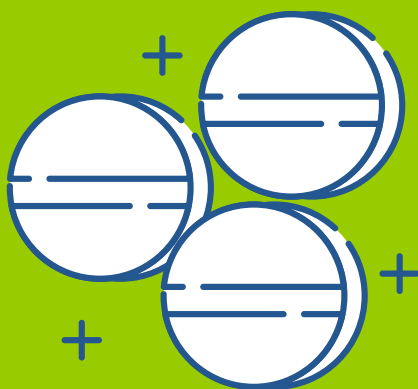

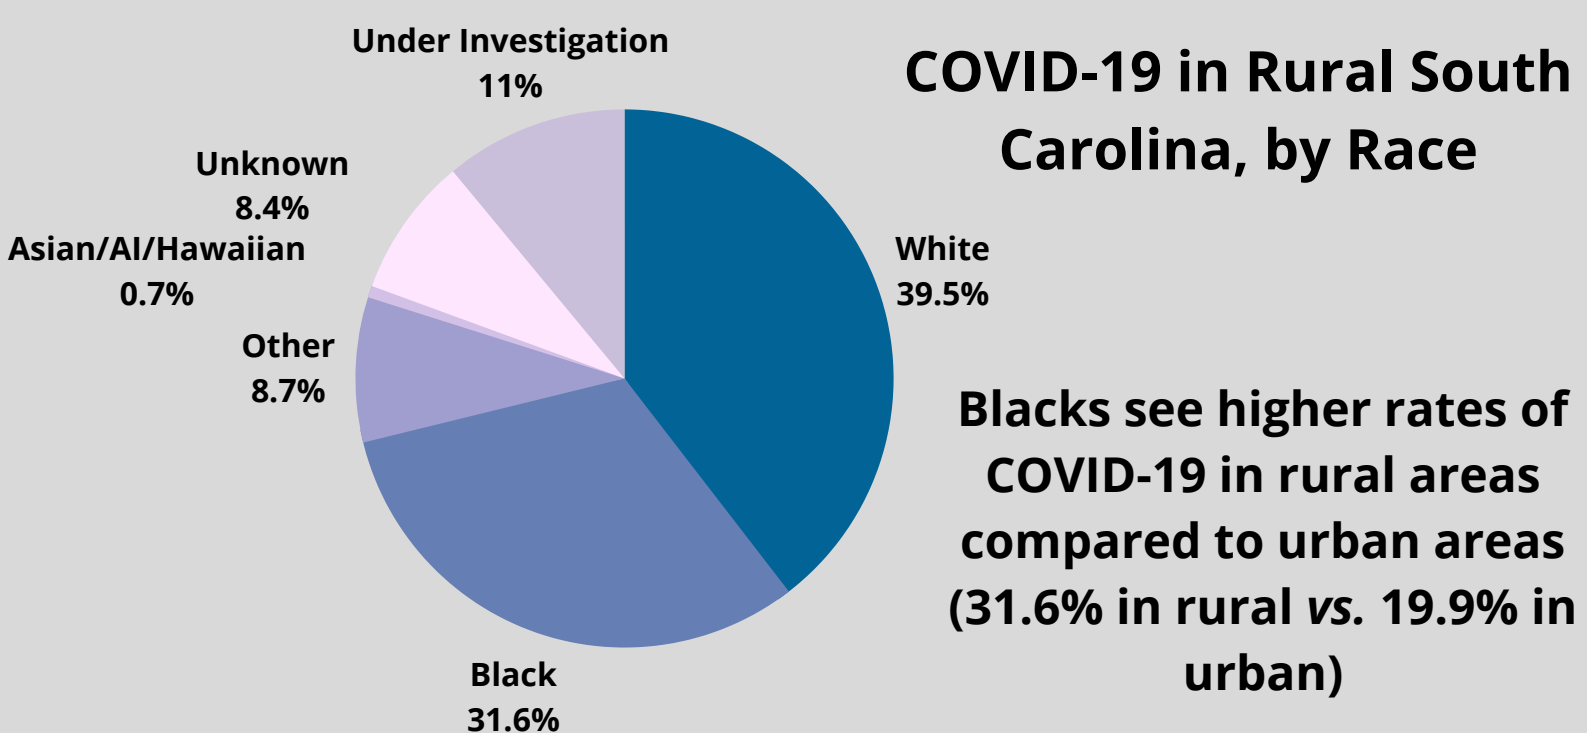

23.9%

of all hospitalizations

25.6%

of all COVID-19 deaths

Rural areas in South Carolina see higher rates of COVID-19 cases, hospitalizations, and deaths

Individuals living in rural South Carolina who are diagnosed with COVID-19 are on average, older, with more comorbid conditions, and more likely to be hospitalized when compared to those in urban areas.

COVID-19 HAS DISPROPORTIONATELY AFFECTED THOSE LIVING IN RURAL AREAS. INDIVIDUALS ARE SEEING HIGHER RATES OF CASES, HOSPITALIZATIONS, AND DEATHS.